

Faculty disclosures

Prof. Dr Athol Wells has received consultancy and/or lecturing fees from Roche/Intermune, Boehringer Ingelheim, Bayer and Actelion.

Prof. Bruno Crestani has received honoraria for speaking, consultancy fees, research grants and/or support for congress participation from Astra-Zeneca, Boehringer-Ingelheim, Roche, Sanofi.

Prof. Dr Claus Peter Heussel has received consultancy and/or lecturing fees from Schering-Plough, Pfizer, Basilea, Boehringer Ingelheim, Novartis, Roche, Astellas, Gilead, MSD, Lilly, Intermune Fresenius. Research funding: Siemens, Pfizer, MeVis, Boehringer Ingelheim.

Prof. Juergen Behr received honoraria for lectures and for Consulting from Actelion, Bayer, Gilead, Boehringer-Ingelheim, Roche. Grants from Actelion, Boehringer-Ingelheim and Roche.

Dr Marlies S. Wijzenbeek Unrestricted grants: InterMune / F. Hoffmann-La Roche, Boehringer Ingelheim. Speaker/advisory board: Intermune/F. Hoffmann-La Roche/Genentech, Boehringer Ingelheim, Galapagos, Zambon. All grants and fees were paid to her institution.

Prof. Dr Michael Kreuter has received compensations for advisory boards and lectures by Boehringer Ingelheim and Roche.

Prof. Venerino Poletti has received honoraria or consultation fees from Roche, Boehringer Ingelheim, Erbe.

Prof. Vincent Cottin has received honoraria or consultation fees from Roche Boehringer Ingelheim, Roche, Celgene, Promedior.